

(a) A past ACDC rated player that has not played darts in the ACDC for the previous (5) years can have their classification changed to the next lower classification. (ex. Tungsten to Nickel, Nickel to Brass).

1) A Tungsten player that has been re-rated to Nickel cannot play on a Brass team.

Multiple Division

- (1) If a team is playing in one of the lower 50% divisions in their League, containing two or more divisions, and finishes in last place, then the entire team will be reclassified to the League one step lower. In the event of a two-way tie for last place, both teams will be reclassified to the lower League. If there is more than a two-way tie, then no teams will be reclassified to the lower League.
- (2) If a team is playing in the upper 50% divisions in their league, containing two or more divisions, and finishes in first place, then the entire team is reclassified to the League one step higher.

(c) Single Division

(1) If a team is playing in their league, containing one division, the entire team will be reclassified to the league one step lower if either (A) or (B) apply.

(A) A team finishes in last place in two consecutive seasons, or two out of three consecutive seasons.

(B) A team finishes in last place with a 30% win percentage or lower.

(2) If a team is playing in their league, containing one division, the entire team will be reclassified to the league one-step higher if either (A) or (B) apply.

(A) A team finishes in first place in two consecutive seasons, or two out of three consecutive seasons.

(B) A team finishes in first place with a 70% win percentage or higher

(d) Any player may be reclassified by a majority vote of the Board before the start of a season.

E. Classification of subs:

(a) If a sub has been previously classified, then he may only sub in his classified League or one higher.

(b) If a sub is unclassified, then he may sub for any team in any League, and remain unclassified as long as he is not a regular.

(c) A sub's classification cannot change as long as he is not a regular.

(d) All other sub rules apply.

F. A classified player playing outside the range of these rules will be considered illegal.
