

12. PLAYOFFS: All ACDC rules apply

- A. The team with the highest number of wins at the end of a season is that division's winner. Playoff for League championship, when needed, the total number of wins, divided by the total number of scheduled games played in each respective division, will determine the wild card spot per highest average.
- B. First place division ties will be played off. Wildcard ties will only be played off if they are the last wildcard spot needed. If there is a three way tie the board will contact the teams that will playoff for the last wildcard spot. To decide which 2 teams will get to playoff, their scores will be compared to the first place team in their division. The 2 teams with the highest wins will be the teams to play for the last wildcard spot.
- C. If teams tie, they will play off within one week of last scheduled match.
- D. The ACDC Board will be in touch with tying teams to arrange playoff date.
- E. If a postponement is necessary, the ACDC Board of Directors is to be contacted within 24 hours of the scheduled match.
- F. The first round of playoffs, all Division winners will be seeded by winning percentage before the wildcards. After the Division winners are seeded, the wildcards will be placed in order of winning percentage. The Division winners and if needed, the highest percentage wildcard will host the playoff. The maximum number of teams in a playoff will be eight. In the second round of playoffs, Division winners will host the playoff. If no Division winners remain in a bracket, then the highest percentage team will host their playoff. The finals will be held at a neutral location.
- G. League playoffs will be played on a predetermined date arranged by the Board at the first meeting after schedule is published.
- H. Only teams involved in the playoffs will be contacted by the ACDC Board as to where they will be playing.
- I. No Board member involved in the playoffs may officiate in their own division.
- J. The Official of a playoff match must call in scores by 5 P.M. the following day.
- K. A Board member must officiate all playoff matches. If no Board member is available to officiate, a Trustee or previous Board member may officiate. if none are available, a team Captain may officiate. Team Captain cannot be from either teams division.

13. FORFEITING AND QUITTING:

- A. Definition of match forfeiture: A team that does not follow the postponement rules, resulting in a match not being played constitutes forfeiture.
- B. (1) Any team forfeiting twice in a season will be suspended from the league play.
(2) Any team forfeiting the last three weeks of a season (including playoffs), will be suspended from League play.
- C. If a team quits or is suspended, all teams in their division will be given the maximum points that can be earned in their division.
- D. If a team quits or is suspended during the second half of the season, the first half scores will remain the same, only the second half corrected. In a 15 week season, the season is divided into thirds. Scores will remain the same for the thirds played, only the remaining thirds will be corrected.
